The route

JOHANNESBURG · DURBAN · NORTH COAST · PHINDA

DAY 1

Johannesburg · Blair Atholl

We meet you at OR Tambo and drive you to Blair Atholl Golf & Equestrian Estate in Fourways. The overnight suites look straight out over tomorrow's course. Rest this afternoon. Dinner is early on the estate, with a short walk across the grounds afterwards to help the body clock along.

DAY 2

Golf · Blair Atholl

Blair Atholl is No. 2 in South Africa for 2025 and, at 8,000 yards off the back tees, the longest course in the country. Let your caddie choose the tees. Non-golfers can ride at the estate's equestrian centre or go into Johannesburg's galleries with a driver, and everyone meets for a long lunch.

DAY 3

Johannesburg → Durban · The Oyster Box

The Embraer Phenom 300 flies from Lanseria to King Shaka International in about an hour, and you are at The Oyster Box in Umhlanga by lunch. Beach or pool this afternoon. Dinner is on the Ocean Terrace: grilled Mozambique prawns while the lighthouse beam starts to sweep the water.

DAY 4

Golf · Durban Country Club

Durban Country Club is No. 8 in South Africa for 2025, with a careful upgrade by Golf Data. It runs through the dunes behind the beach, and on each tee your caddie will tell you how much the wind off the sea is worth. Non-golfers have the spa and the Umhlanga promenade, with lunch looking over the water.

DAY 5

Up the coast · Zimbali Lodge · Zimbali Country Club

A short drive up the north coast brings you to Zimbali Lodge on its own golf estate. In the afternoon you play Zimbali Country Club, a Tom Weiskopf design cut through coastal forest, with the fairways opening out to the sea. Non-golfers can take the forest trails down to the beach.

DAY 6

Golf · Prince's Grant

Prince's Grant, No. 30 in South Africa for 2025, sits on the clifftops of the north coast, and you see the Indian Ocean from every hole. Your caddie gets you out early, before the wind gets up. Non-golfers have the morning at Zimbali Lodge and join you for lunch at the clubhouse.

DAY 7

North Coast → Phinda · Phinda Vlei Lodge

A Pilatus PC-12 flies you north from King Shaka to the Phinda airstrip, with a low pass first to clear the nyala and warthog off it. Phinda Vlei Lodge has six suites on the edge of a pan, and we book all six for your party. You decide when the afternoon drive leaves.

DAY 8

Cheetah on foot

Phinda has been rewilding cheetah for years, and today you track them on foot with your guide and tracker, following the signal and then the spoor through grass and sand forest. It is slow, quiet work and it holds your attention completely. After lunch and a rest, an evening drive crosses the reserve's different habitats, and dinner is by the fire on the deck.

DAY 9

Phinda → Johannesburg · The Saxon

A last morning drive, then the PC-12 takes you back to Lanseria and you are at The Saxon in Sandhurst by mid-afternoon: twelve suites and its own villas in three acres of garden. Dinner is at the hotel, as private as you want it, for your last evening in South Africa.

DAY 10

Departure

Breakfast at your own pace and a private transfer to OR Tambo for your onward flight. Your Journey Architect has confirmed seats and luggage before you leave, so there is time for the garden and one more coffee on the terrace.
