

MULTIGENERATIONAL FAMILY JOURNEYS · 16 NIGHTS

The Multi-Country Grand Tour

The leopard of the Sabi Sand, the water of the Delta and the horses and rhino of Laikipia are three different safaris. Put them in one trip and the children come home with three different stories.

AT A GLANCE

NIGHTS	PARTY	COUNTRIES
16	4–6 guests	South Africa · Botswana · Kenya

FROM	BEST SEASON
Price on application	May–October

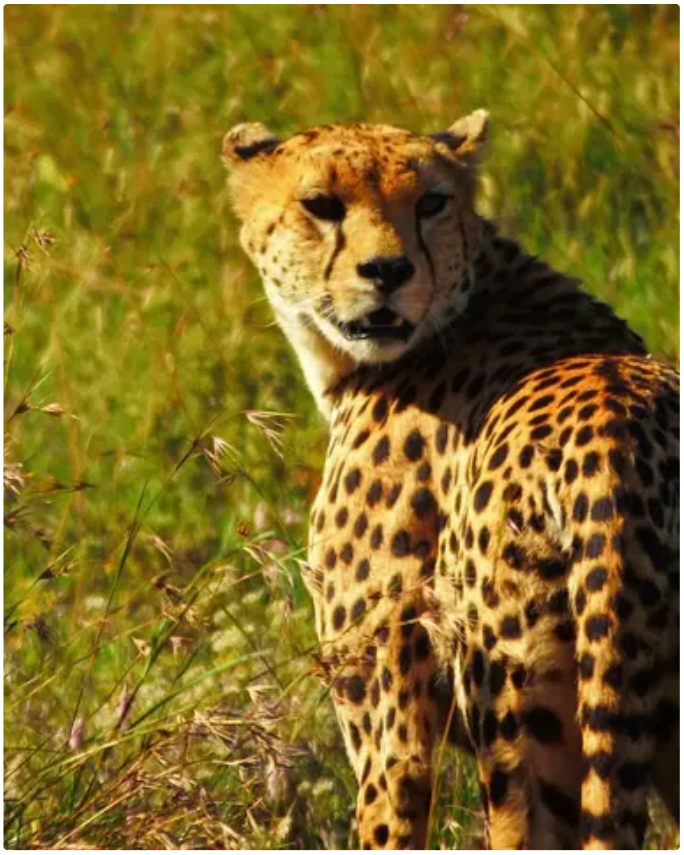

This is the long one. Three countries, five stops, four very different kinds of Africa, all by private aircraft. Families usually come to us for it with an occasion in mind: an 80th birthday, a 50th anniversary, a retirement, the last summer before the eldest goes to university.

It is built for families of four to six, up to three generations, and the smaller party is what makes it work. You have a private villa in Cape Town, your own villa in the Sabi Sand and a house on Borana, so the grandparents can take a morning off without holding anyone up. Cheetah Plains lets each villa whole, to one party of up to eight, with its own vehicle, guide and team; over the festive season, 20 December to 4 January, it takes a minimum of six guests. Laragai is let to one party only and priced on a minimum of six guests, which is why the house is yours alone even with four. Jao's villa takes children from six, so this one suits families whose youngest is six or older. One aircraft in the south, one jet across the continent, and the same family-sized vehicle and guide at every stop, with a second on request.

Highlights

- A private villa at Ellerman House above Bantry Bay
- Your own villa at Cheetah Plains in the Sabi Sand, with its own vehicle and chef
- Mokoro and motorboat from Jao's island in the Okavango
- Five nights at Laragai House on Borana: rhino tracking on foot, horses, a helicopter to Mount Kenya
- Two last nights at Angama Mara above the Maasai Mara, and the picnic where Out of Africa was filmed

The route

CAPE TOWN · SABI SAND · OKAVANGO · NAIROBI · BORANA · MAASAI MARA

DAY 1–2

Cape Town · Ellerman House

One of Ellerman House's two private villas, with its own pool and the Atlantic below. Day one: a long family dinner in the villa garden. Day two: Table Mountain by cable car early, before the queues, then the Two Oceans Aquarium for the children.

DAY 3

Cape Town → Sabi Sand

Pilatus PC-12 class turboprop to the Arathusa strip. From here until Nairobi you are in malaria areas.

DAY 3–5

Cheetah Plains · 3 nights

One of the three villas: four suites, a pool, a chef and your own electric vehicle and guide. Leopard, lion and the rest of the Big Five on drives timed to suit the family. A tasting in the villa cellar for the adults.

DAY 6

Sabi Sand → Okavango

Clear out of South Africa and fly to Maun, then a light aircraft to Jao. Soft bags only.

DAY 6–8

Wilderness Jao · 3 nights

Jao Villa, two bedrooms for four guests, on a private island in the northern Delta. Families of five or six add a family suite in the main camp alongside. Mokoro through the lily channels for anyone 13 and over; younger children go out by motorboat and vehicle. A day by motorboat, drives on the island.

DAY 9

Maun → Nairobi

Light jet north to Nairobi, the one leg on this journey that calls for a jet. One night in a family suite at Giraffe Manor and breakfast with the giraffe.

DAY 10

Nairobi → Borana

Charter north to Borana on the Laikipia Plateau. Laragai House is a private family house on the edge of an escarpment, with Mount Kenya on the skyline.

DAY 10–14

Laragai House · 5 nights

Black rhino tracking on foot, horse riding, a helicopter flight up to Mount Kenya, dinners from the farm next door, and one night at a long table on the escarpment edge.

DAY 15

Borana → Maasai Mara

Charter south to Angama's airstrip. Interconnecting suites on the Oloolo Escarpment, 1,000 feet above the Mara Triangle, with a private vehicle and guide for your family. Angama asks for one when children under seven are travelling.

DAY 15–16

Angama Mara · 2 nights

A last dawn drive, and a picnic with white linen at the spot where Out of Africa was filmed.

DAY 17

Home

Charter from Angama to Nairobi for your international flights.

Flown by turboprop, light and super-light jet and helicopter. How we choose the aircraft

How each generation spends the days

Grandparents

Villa decks at Cheetah Plains, the motorboat rather than the mokoro in the Delta, the farm-to-table dinners and gardens at Laragai, a gentle last drive in the Mara.

Parents

Leopard drives in the Sabi Sand, rhino tracking on foot on Borana, the Mount Kenya helicopter, dawn in the Mara.

Children

The aquarium in Cape Town, the motorboat in the Delta (or the mokoro with a parent once they are 13), horses on Borana at the right level for their age and riding, the Out of Africa picnic.

Included

- Private air throughout: turboprop in South Africa and Botswana, light aircraft in the Delta, light jet Maun–Nairobi, charters within Kenya
- A private villa at Ellerman House and at Cheetah Plains; Jao Villa, with a family suite in the main camp for five or six; Laragai House for your family alone; a family suite at Giraffe Manor; interconnecting suites at Angama
- Private vehicle and guide at every stop, including the private vehicle Angama asks for with children under seven; a second vehicle on request
- All meals and drinks on safari
- All activities, including mokoro, rhino tracking, riding and the Mount Kenya helicopter
- Medical evacuation cover for the whole party
- Help planning the occasion you are marking
- Pre-departure pack and a coffee-table book of the journey afterwards

Price on application. Every family is different, so we price each journey on the number of guests and the ages of the children. Excludes international flights.

Treat this journey as a starting point. Your Journey Architect will change the pace, swap a lodge, add a round or take one out.
